MANUFACTURER PROVIDED DESCRIPTION

An ideal partnership of form and function. Forged in a collaboration between Grand Banks and Sparkman & Stephens, the result is the stunning 2006 Grand Banks 59 Aleutian. Grand Banks and Sparkman & Stephens have long and distinguished histories of building yachts of exceptional quality, seaworthiness, strength, comfort, and safety.

The 59 Aleutian is a stunning product of these legacies, taking design and performance to new heights in this newest addition to the Aleutian Series of luxury blue water, raised pilothouse vessels.

An ingenious split-level upper deck features a spacious salon with a well-equipped galley, dining, and helm on the upper level. The lower deck comprises two double cabins (one with en-suite head), a single cabin, and a separate guest/day head.

Fine teak joinery is complemented by soft bulkhead panels, luxurious fabrics, and high quality fixtures and fittings. Below the waterline, the 59 Aleutian as a modified deep-V hull that is tank-tested and optimized to its speed range with propeller tunnels to minimize draft without sacrificing performance. Beautiful, swift, and sure at sea, the 59 will keep you cruising in comfort.
